Danielle Charette

Artist's Statement

Danielle Charette is a Contemporary Narrative Artist who resides and works in Greenpoint, Brooklyn.

Her art is a highly metaphoric form of story telling meant to convey her life experiences & evoke emotion in the viewer. With her folk art styling & iconic imagery, she paints haunting narrative tales of love, life, death, the afterlife, dreams, heartache, heartbreak, loss, whimsy & punk rock, often with conceptual elements & humor. Repetitions of theme, elements, color & design create cohesion throughout her paintings with each piece telling a portion of a story until the story is complete.

Her work is an evolution of her love of love, geometrical shapes, folk & outsider art, dias los muertos, religious iconography, poetry, playing cards, symmetry, vintage deco & art nouveau design, fairy tales, the sea & a lifetime lived in a counterculture.
